FIRST SHOW OF THE SEASON

The first show of the season was staged by the James E. Hendry Chapter of Ft. Myers. Their twelfth annual "Know Your Hibiscus Show-Hawaii" was presented on May 20, 1962.

Col. Squires from Daytona Beach and Mrs. Eunice King of Vero Beach shared the amateur honors. Col. Squires took the best single and best amateur bloom with a "Martha Francis". Mrs. King took the best amateur double with an "Burgundy". She also took the amateur sweepstakes.

Louis Pearl and Ralph Philo, both of Ft. Myers shared the commercial awards. Mr. Pearl took the top commercial bloom with a "Frank Green". The "Frank Green" also took the best commercial double award. Mr. Philo won the commercial single with an "Overture" while Trail Nursery latched on to the commercial sweepstakes.

Harry Goulding of Punta Gorda cleaned up in the seedling class. He took both tri-colors for seedling entries in the single and doubles.
